

THE INVICTA

THE NEWSLETTER OF AVIVA FELLOWSHIP (INVICTA)

SEPTEMBER 2018

We hope that you all have enjoyed the glorious summer that we were treated to this year but with autumn setting in, it is now time to look forward to our main winter event. In this edition we have set out information about our Christmas lunch. Our chairman has provided a review of this year and a glimpse of possible future events and there is also an invitation to join our happy ten pin bowlers.

CHRISTMAS LUNCH

This year our Christmas lunch will take place on Monday 10th December at the excellent Wilderness Golf Club near Sevenoaks for the bargain subsidised price of £15 per person for three courses. The main course will be a carvery except for those wanting fish and there will be a good variety of desserts to choose from on the day.

If you would like to go please let Laurie Thompson
(lunchsecretary@invictamaid.org) know by 15th October so that he can send you joining instructions, and the starter menu for you to pre-order your choice for the first course. At that stage you will need to send your cheque payable to Wilderness Club Ltd.

CHAIRMAN'S ROUNDUP

We have enjoyed so far this year the following:-

1. Pub lunch at The White Rock Underriver
2. AGM in April
3. King John's Nursery in June
4. The Red House in July

Going forward we have Dale Hill Golf Club Lunch on Thursday 27th September with 19 having booked. Of course we now have the usual Christmas lunch to look forward to. We have not yet decided on next year's events, but under consideration are:- The T1Z PROVENDER HOUSE near Faversham, A Boat Trip up the Thames from Chatham, A Boat Trip upon Bawl Water with Fish and Chips, Stationers Hall in London. (sorry I had to cancel the Leathersellers Hall last year due to illness and unfortunately is no longer available for party visits).

If anyone would like to suggest a visit please email me chairman@invictamaid.org.
